Emerald concert of the month

Pražák Quartet

Pavel Hula, violin,
Vlastimil Holec, violin
Josef Kluson, viola
Michal Kaňka, cello

Monday February 28th 2011, at 7 p.m., Théâtre Maisonneuve, Place des Arts

For the The Pražák Quartet, one of today's leading international chamber music ensembles, performing is all about the creation of happiness.

It was established in 1972 while its members were students at the Prague Conservatory. Since then, the quartet has gained attention for its place in the unique Czech quartet tradition with its great tonal warmth, its huge dynamic range, its superb intonation and its musical virtuosity.

Dear to Pro Musica's habitués, this formation is one of the most famous Czech formations.
